V. APPLICATION PROCEDURE

1. Applicants are encouraged to contact an NMU supervisor in the relevant field and obtain the supervisor's acceptance intent before submitting the application. A Letter of Supervisor Acceptance Intent for 2024 NMU Admission is necessary to complete an application. An incomplete application without the letter will also be reviewed, but needs to be supplemented subsequently with such letter. The admission office will assist those applicants to contact prospective supervisors. (Please find the attachment for the list of supervisors and a template of Letter of Supervisor Acceptance Intent for 2024 NMU Admission.)
2. All applicants should submit the materials, including the Letter of Supervisor Acceptance Intent for 2024 NMU Admission and published articles (if any), through our online application system (<http://admission.njmu.edu.cn/>). In addition, for applicants seeking a Chinese Government Scholarship (CSC scholarship), a separate application should be submitted in the CSC system together with the Supervisor Acceptance Letter.
3. According to a preliminary review of the application materials and the requirements of relevant academic school/department, eligible applicants will participate in an interview. The applicants will be notified of the specific arrangements separately.
4. NMU will issue a PRE-ADMISSION LETTER to those qualified applicants.
5. Qualified applicants pay a non-refundable deposit payment of CNY5,000 within the period specified in the PRE-ADMISSION LETTER.

6. NMU will send OFFICIAL ADMISSION LETTER and relevant materials for Visa Application for Study in China (JW201/JW202 form) after receiving the deposit. Failure to pay the deposit within designated period may result in a cancellation of admission.

7. Incoming students apply for an X Visa at an embassy or consulate of P.R. China, along with the OFFICIAL ADMISSION LETTER and the JW201/JW202 form.

8. Applicants in their final year of study will also be considered for admission. However, such admission does not exempt the applicants from their responsibility to present all required original documents (graduation diploma, degree certificate, transcript, language proficiency certificate and other attachment materials, etc.) at registration. Failure to obtain and present all required original documents will result in the cancellation of admission.
